Jacob Comes Home

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just (righteous) to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9

After meeting Esau, Jacob journeys to Succoth and then to Shechem.

River and the narrative of the story make it likely that Jacob had already crossed the Jabbok near the King's Highway by the time he reached Mahanaim, which was probably on the south side of the Jabbok.

As he crosses the Jabbok River, Jacob wrestles with a man (God), who blesses him. Jacob names the place Peniel. Soon after this, Jacob looks up and sees Esau coming.

Goodness Of God By Bethel Music

I love You, Lord
For Your mercy never failed me
All my days, I've been held in Your hands
From the moment that I wake up
Until I lay my head
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God

And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God

I love Your voice
You have led me through the fire
And in darkest night You are close like no other
I've known You as a Father
I've known You as a Friend
And I have lived in the goodness of God

And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God

Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
With my life laid down, I'm surrendered now
I give You everything
'Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me,
oh-oh
'Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me

Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
With my life laid down, I'm surrendered now
I give You everything
'Cause Your goodness is running after, it keeps running after me
