God's promises to Jacob

- I will make you into a great nation
- I myself will go down with you
- I will bring you up again
- Joseph's hand shall close your eyes

Genesis 47 - A Notion to Move to Goshen

An ancient Egyptian wall painting depicting three men with goats. The man on the left, with a black beard and a striped kilt, holds a goat by its horns. The man in the center, wearing a patterned shawl, is tending to a goat. The man on the right, wearing a white kilt, stands with his hands at his sides. The background is decorated with various Egyptian symbols and hieroglyphs, including a crocodile, a lotus, and a papyrus. The painting is set within a rectangular frame.

¹⁶ “Son of man, take a stick and write on it, ‘For Judah, and the people of Israel associated with him’; then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with him.’ ¹⁷And join them one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand...²²And I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. And one king shall be king over them all, and they shall be no longer two nations, and no longer divided into two kingdoms...

²⁶I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will set them in their land and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷My dwelling place shall be with them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
